Monday

Dear All,

Thank you so much for your letters and postcards. I have enjoyed reading them all, especially as I have been grounded ever since my return from my great adventure. My mum was extremely cross that I had gone off without telling her what I was doing.

When I arrived home I was sent straight to bed. Mum said I had embarrassed her by wearing the same clothes all the time. I did explain that I had washed them but she wouldn't listen to me.

I've had plenty of time to think back on my adventure. I find it hard to decide what I liked best. The scenery in the Grand Canyon was awe inspiring. Boston was fascinating and Florida great fun. If I had to chose the best part, I think it would be seeing all those animals in the Yellowstone National Park. I hope to go on another adventure sometime but I will talk to my mum about it first. When I go, I will send some more postcards. Look out for them!

P.S. My mum said to thank everyone who wrote to her. People were so kind and it helped ease her mind.
