

Letter to Snow White's Stepmother

Dear

I'm writing to you to ask you to help me sort out a problem I have with my sister. I feel she is my father's favourite; she also appears to be the king's choice as a wife. What can I do to stop this happening? I am not heartless or jealous – I am the fairest of all. As I know you have experience in these matters, I should appreciate some ideas or tips.

My sister's attitude to me is kind, considerate and generous. I just can't believe she is sincere. Please reply soon, as, under such dreadful strain, I am becoming desperate.

Yours sincerely,
