

Dear All,
I am still in Yellowstone National Park.
Today I have been looking at the hot springs and geysers. It is such an interesting place with lots of things to do and see. I liked seeing the Old Faithful geyser. It is not the biggest geyser in the park but it erupts more frequently so you have a good chance of seeing it.

I also saw the Grand Canyon of the Yellowstone today. It is not the famous one in Arizona, nevertheless it was interesting to see. Tomorrow I am back on a plane. I'm going to Arizona to see the real thing!

All my love

B.
